

Second Sunday, Nov 10th, 2019, 2p, Poetry Readings at the Depot in Norman,
The Depot, 200 S. Jones

The Second Sunday Poetry Readings program provides a monthly venue for selected regional poets to share their work. Former Oklahoma Poet Laureate and Oklahoma Book Award winner Carl Sennhenn hosts.

Featured Poet — Alice Byrd:

Alice Byrd was a carpenter, house painter, teacher, grant writer and part owner of Soft Path, a store where products to conserve energy were sold. She taught for 18 years. She has a BA in Political Science and Science Education. She has been published in Blood and Thunder: Musing on the Art of Medicine, Issue 8 (2008); Travelin' Music: A Poetic Tribute to Woody Guthrie edited by Dorothy Alexander (Village Books Press, 2010); Ain't Nobody That Can Sing Like Me: New Oklahoma Writing edited by Jeanetta Calhoun Mish (2010); Speak Your Mind, Celebrate Freedom of Speech 2019 edited by Dorothy Alexander (Village Books Press, 2019).